

KCK Housing Authority

Resident Selection Specialist

This position will process client applications for low income housing. Will assist clients from the initial application to lease-up. Must have good communication skills, be able to manage files, and enjoy working with the public. Salary range is $18.01—$27.37 hourly. Interested applicants should complete an employment application found on our website at www.kckha.org. Position is open until filled. Police background check and drug test required. For a complete job description, visit our website. EOE M/F/H